Event Details

ART OF LIVING: JFCS East Bay's 17th annual gala and fundraiser takes place on Sunday April 14, 2024 and draws 500 loyal agency supporters, community leaders, businesses, and philanthropists who partner with us to support the journeys of immigrants and refugees, of older adults and families with children building an East Bay where everyone can flourish with dignity. The evening begins with a gala reception, featuring wine and gourmet hors d'oeuvres followed by an auditorium program spotlighting a noteworthy, guest speaker and our live fundraising appeal.

Event sponsors play a pivotal role in underwriting the evening so that all proceeds go directly to JFCS East Bay's work building a community where everyone can flourish with dignity.

Featured Speaker

This year we are proud to welcome literary legend, social activist, and feminist icon, Isabel Allende to our stage. Allende garnered worldwide acclaim in 1982 with the publication of her first novel, The House of the Spirits, and has authored more than twenty-six bestselling and critically acclaimed books. Her most recent book, The Wind Knows My Name, weaves together the lives of a Jewish boy escaping Nazi-occupied Europe and a mother and daughter fleeing twenty-first-century El Salvador in this novel about child separation, war and immigration.

Agency Information

Jewish Family & Community Services East Bay (JFCS East Bay) is a community-based, direct social and human services organization that has supported Alameda and Contra Costa County residents of all ages, races, and religions for 146 years.

We serve refugees from Afghanistan and newcomers from Ukraine, older adults aging with support in their homes, Holocaust survivors receiving care and restitution, immigrants becoming citizens, and families and individuals strengthening their mental and physical wellbeing.

Business Sponsorship Benefits

Your logo will reach more than 10,000 philanthropically minded households in the East Bay through our marketing (10 eblasts to over 9,000 with a 50% open rate), social media (3,700 followers), and website (3,200 average monthly visits), giving you a unique opportunity to showcase your company's community engagement. You will also have tickets to attend the event. We anticipate that we'll have at least 400 in person attendees at this year's Art of Living gala. Our peak attendance, pre-COVID, was 550 attendees. We're aiming to grow back to that number or more.
